Student Code of Conduct

While a Wilson School student is the sole purpose for the existence of Wilson School and the services it provides, a Wilson School student is also expected to be responsible for availing him/herself to the educational services provided by the school, and to demonstrate school spirit and personal pride at all times.

Purpose and Responsibility

The fundamental purpose and responsibility of a Wilson School Student is to develop and nurture in themselves the knowledge, skills, attitudes, and values necessary to “grow within and go beyond” in order to become responsible, contributing and productive members of society. A Wilson School student is responsible for his/her learning, actions, and behavior at all times.

Attendance

Wilson School students are expected to attend and be on time to school regularly and to attend all classes in order to fulfill their responsibility to learn.

Work Habits

Wilson School students are expected to be prepared for and to participate in each class to meet performance standards, to have the necessary class materials, to complete classwork and homework accurately and on time, and to prepare for quizzes and assessments.

Respect for Self and Others

Wilson School students are expected to be honest, behave with dignity and to treat others with respect and courtesy. Behavior of the individual should not interfere or impede the learning of others. Wilson students are expected not to harass or bully others verbally and physically, and to come to school free from the influence of tobacco products, alcohol or drugs. Wilson students are expected not to use or possess such substances.

Respect for Authority

Wilson School students are expected to demonstrate respect for authority and to comply with all rules and to obey all laws at all times and especially while under the jurisdiction of the school and while participating in school-sponsored activities. Wilson School students are expected to respond in a courteous and respectful manner to all adults at all times.

Respect for Property

Students are expected to treat all property belonging to the school and to others with care.

Freedom from Fear

Students are expected to contribute to a safe school environment free from fear. Acts of violence, weapons, and contraband are never acceptable.
