CARE Academy Summer 2018

Dress Code and Conduct:

Wilson School features air-conditioned classrooms. Your child may bring a sweater or jacket but they are responsible for it.

We request that students dress appropriately and that any wording or design on the attire to be appropriate for children and not contain questionable or offensive material.

For safety concerns, we request that your child wear covered shoes or sandals with a back strap. Please, no rubber slippers or flip flops as our sidewalks feature a covering of safety paint that can be abrasive if a student trips or falls.

All students are required to behave in a responsible and respectful manner. Any student who either disrespects others, disrupts sessions, threatens or endangers other students will be withdrawn from the program with no remuneration.

Supplies:

Your child does not need to bring any supplies as all supplies are included. Students may bring a bag to carry personal items, but they are responsible for it and any contents.

Snacks:

Your child may bring a snack for recess but we request that it not contain peanuts as Wilson School is a peanut free school. We will have a snack shop available as a convenience for students who may want to purchase a snack. Most will cost between $0.50 to $1.00

Extended Program:

Operated by the Kaimuki-Waiālae YMCA at Wilson School from 12:00 noon to 6:00 P.M.. Students will stay at Wilson school/park except for planned excursions. Please contact the YMCA directly for any inquiries at (808) 737-5544.
